

A WEEK of really active social life has just passed by, but a season of quiet seems to be about to succeed it. The big affairs of the past few days have been quite numerous and many of them have been given in honor of Miss Dorn. The biggest event was the dance given by Miss McIntyre last Wednesday evening at the beautiful McIntyre home on Seventh street. The Donnellan-Pills wedding of the same day taking place in San Francisco was another event in which much of the society of Salt Lake was interested. Mrs. Thomas Wells's tea on Tuesday, Mrs. Donnellan's luncheon on Thursday, both in honor of Mrs. Wolfersberger of Denver; Mrs. Frank's two afternoons, and the luncheon given at the Alta club by Mrs. Walter Filer were all delightful affairs and had each their share of guests. Very little is planned for the coming week except the wedding of Miss Dorn and Mr. Dick, which takes place Wednesday evening, and the details of which have been published in The Herald.

Mrs. C. B. Diehl was the hostess yesterday at a bridal luncheon given for Miss Dorn, whose marriage will be one of the events of the coming week. The decorations were all white and green and covers were laid for twelve. A centerpiece of holly leaves over pale green was in the middle of the table and from this arose a series of garlands with smilax and asparagus ferns. Around the whole was a garland of pale green tulle. Everything was of the faintest in the two colors. The guests present to meet Miss Dorn were Mrs. W. H. Cunningham, Miss June McIntyre, Miss Leta MacMillan, Mrs. S. C. Adams, Mrs. John Lewis, Mrs. Mrs. J. E. Gallagher, Miss Laura Preston, Miss Claudia Morris, Mrs. D. C. Roberts and Mrs. Dana Smith.

Mrs. W. T. Benson gave a delightful euchre party yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. J. Fred Odell. The rooms were prettily decorated with chrysanthemums and live tables were filled with the guests. Those present besides Mrs. Odell were Mrs. Schoppe, Mrs. O. H. Hampton, Miss Howat, Miss Addie Hampton, Miss Schoppe, Mrs. Jean Odell, Miss Catherine Culmer, Mrs. DeWolf of Beaver, Mrs. Joseph Richards, Mrs. Arthur Shepherd, Mrs. E. R. Riter, Mrs. Sam Riter, Mrs. Hyde Dale, Mrs. John Lewis, Mrs. Verne, Mrs. T. G. Odell, Mrs. Evans and Miss Fannie Bird.

The society of the Kn's Daughters of the First Presbyterian church gave a pleasant entertainment Friday evening which was attended by a large number of ladies. Besides the little play "A District School," several readings were given by Mrs. Igleheart and some excellent musical numbers were presented.

A number of the leading society people are planning to give box parties at the performance of "Cinderella or A Dress Rehearsal" which is to be given matinee and evening performances at the theatre Tuesday, Dec. 1, under the direction of Mrs. Martha Royle King.

Mrs. Hal W. Brown entertained informally at her home yesterday afternoon.

Miss Jean Preston is visiting friends in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lamb entertained informally at cards last evening and will have a few friends at an informal musical tonight.

Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick will entertain a few friends informally tomorrow evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall.

Mrs. Charles Brink entertains the East Side card club Tuesday at her home on N street.

Mrs. W. T. Benson will give a luncheon to the Third Street Card club next Wednesday.

Judge and Mrs. J. M. Bowman and Miss Mary Hoag will go to Ogden to spend Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hoag.

Mr. W. W. Riter has gone east for a short business.

Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes will resume her regular Fridays at home this week and will be at home to her friends next Friday afternoon, 7 till 6 o'clock.

A buffet luncheon will be served at the Country club next Thursday from 12:30 till 2:30.

Miss Emma Ramsey returned yesterday from Provo and is the guest of Miss Jennie Sands.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Sands will entertain at a dance this evening for Miss Emma Ramsey and Miss Jennie Sands, who will leave shortly for a long concert tour.

Miss Leta MacMillan gives a luncheon next Tuesday at her home.

Miss Maud Riter entertained yesterday afternoon at a high tea at which covers were laid for seven.

Mrs. E. S. Ferry entertained a few friends at tea last night.

Miss May Midgley entertained a few friends at cards Wednesday evening. Progressive high five was the principal feature. The prizes were won by Miss Julia Murray and J. A. Murray. Refreshments were then served, after which music was rendered by some of the guests and was enjoyed until a late hour. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Midgley, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gessford, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Midgley, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Midgley, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Perry, the Misses Sadie and Bertha Midgley, Julia Murray, Miss Blair and Messrs. J. R. Murray, W. Lowry, Earl Midgley and Rex Midgley.

The seventh annual ball of the International Association of Machinists will be given next Thursday evening at Christensen's hall. The affair is for the benefit of the sick members.

The members of the Bonafay Sewing club were entertained by Mrs. Harris Thursday afternoon. A most enjoyable time was spent by all present. The time was passed in sewing and light refreshments were served. The members will give an informal social in the near future.

A pleasant birthday party was given Saturday at the home of Miss Lulu Kelly at Park City. Cards were played and later a musical programme was rendered. In the games the first prizes fell to Mrs. John Hays and Mr. James Meahan, and the second prizes to Mrs. Hugh McGill and Mr. McGill. Those present were: Mrs. Hays, Mrs. Hugh McGill, Mr. Hugh McGill, Mr. Edward McGill, Mr. James Meahan, Mr. Joseph McNichols, Mr. James Allen, Master Charles McGill, Master Tony McGill, Misses Mary and Kathleen Hays, Miss Mary McGill, Florence and May Kelly.

Miss Mildred Lindsay, daughter of John S. Lindsay of this city, and Dr. Claire L. Foote of San Diego, Cal., were united in marriage at Provo on Nov. 18.

Miss Ella Myers was the hostess at a very pleasant surprise party Tuesday evening. Ping pong and other parlor games were played, after which Mrs. J. B. Spaulding, H. Hylands and M. Myers served dainty refreshments. The guests were: Lydia Rickard, P. J. Beasley, Grace Rickard, Mr. and Mrs. Teneyck, Mr. and Mrs. Heagren, Charles Brown, Mr. Douglas, Fred Siegel, Ed Lancaster, Grace Fowler, Jack Price, Mr. and Mrs. Pfeffer, Rae Miles, Juanita Miller, H. G. Shafer, Florence Everett, Mable Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Knightlinger, Mattie Nichols, Amos E. Hylander, James Nichols, Ella Myers, Miss Hylander, Dick Summerhays, Mrs. J. B. Spaulding, Lizzie Myers, Blanche Spaulding, Bert McArthur, Will Sherriff, Mrs. Myers, B. Burt, F. Rowley, H. Hylander.

Thursday evening the Elite Social club held its usual dance in the Ladies' Literary club hall. Punch was served in the lower hall. The evening was very pleasantly spent. Those present were: Miss Emma Wallace, Emily James, May Cox, Olive Cushing, Ethel Hawkes, Olive Evans, Louise Larson, Lena Jack, Gertrude Lee, Esther Cornejo, Maggie Gray, Susie Miller, Lillie West, Nora Green, Marion McDonald, Jean Pender, Sadie Livingston, Mrs. Ivy Hoggan, and Messrs. Thomas Halberg, William Naylor, Edward Wallace, Claude Erskine, William Sears, Alex Olsen, William Warburton, Neal Wilson, Oscar Sandberg, William Perkins, Garfield McDonald, William Harrison, Hoy Hoggan, James Gray, Robert M. Burt, William McDonald, Percy Clark, Roy and Ed Lancaster.

The Jolly Jokers met at the home of the parents of Miss Ethel Hawkes, 555 East Third South street, last Friday. The rooms were prettily and tastefully decorated in honor of the occasion, and the evening was most enjoyable, passed with games, music and feasting, and also just a few jokes. The hour to go home arrived, but action on the matter was postponed several times, and the fun continued. All the guests missed the last car, but they voted the meeting a most pleasant and enjoyable one. Those who were not present were: The Misses Grace Radcliffe, Stella Daynes, Olive Cushing, Cora Snow, Eva Snow, Ethel Hawkes, and Messrs. Cliff Young, Charles Howard, Claude Erskine, William Sears and Lyle Morrison. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Miss Eva Snow on Friday, Dec. 5.

Miss Ethel Bauer will entertain members of the "Cinderella" Opera company at the Knutsford Monday evening.

There will be a dancing matinee Thursday afternoon at 115 East First South street, and there are socials at the same place every Wednesday evening.

OGDEN.

The High school alumni ball given Friday evening at Kiesel hall was one of the most successful events of the year. The hall was handsomely and artistically decorated with the colors of the school—orange and black—and of the alumni—crimson and white. One feature in which the alumni corps were brought out was a great crimson banner of the association with white letters and graced with a death's head and crossbones. These touches in the decorations were set off by masses of white, coral and pumpkin appropriate to the harvest season of the year. A special brew of punch called alumni punch was made by Koltis in honor of the occasion, and served with other tasteful refreshments. The affair was instrumental in bringing out a large and fashionable gathering, and the hall was aglow with laughter and jest. A merry throng of about seventy-five couples danced the hours away till the morning was come.
